

NEW CITY COMMERCIAL CENTER (NCCC) – PALAWAN CONDUCTS 2ND LMC ASSOCIATES CONGRESS

NEWS RELEASE

National Conciliation and Mediation Board

Regional Branch No. IV-B

18 May 2017

PUERTO PRINCESA CITY– “Happy employees contribute to the success and growth of the company,” Riolinda R. Lim, Associate Vice President said in her message during the 2nd Associates Congress of NCCC-Palawan held on April 25, 2017 at the Crossfit Area, NCCC Mall, Puerto Princesa City, Palawan.

“The company’s core values of humility, hard work, and excellence guided the company’s LMC or the NCCC Associates Management Council (NAMC) active involvement,” she added.

The one day celebration was coupled with fun-filled activities such as the Search for Mr. & Ms. NCCC, Tawag ng Tanghalan, and cultural presentation. During the conduct of the activity, management took the opportunity to recognize its employees with perfect attendance.

The oathtaking of the new set of officers highlighted the event. The ceremony was administered by Regional Conciliation and Mediation Branch IVB Director Lourdes P. Estioco.

“As elected officers of your LMC, you must promote harmonious working relations in NCCC- Palawan,” Dir. Estioco said as she congratulated the elected officers.

NCCC top management led by Charlene Lim thanked the branch for its assistance and support extended to the company.

NCCC Mall, Puerto Princesa is located at Lacao St., Puerto Princesa City, Palawan. It has 6 main components, Department Store, Supermarket, Pharmacy, Food court, Cinema, and Hardware. It has more or less 800 workers in its employ.

END/ Julia P. Peleo